

VSCA Professional Recognition Awards Guide

Annually, the Virginia School Counselor Association recognizes the outstanding and exemplary work of school counselors, counselor educators, and the administrators, and division-level directors that support the school counseling profession. At the annual conference, awards will be given to those nominees who best exhibit the implementation of the ASCA National model and show evidence of a comprehensive school counseling program. Award recipients are recognized on the last day of the conference at the Awards Luncheon. The VSCA conference is scheduled for October 18 - 20, 2023.

Elementary and Secondary School Counselor of the Year (SCOY)

Award Criteria

The school counselor of the year award recognizes two outstanding professionals (elementary and secondary) who have made a positive impact in their school community. Contributions to the profession can be measured by the use of the ASCA National model, evidence of data-driven practices, and the implementation of a comprehensive counseling program. In order to receive full consideration for the award the following items must be shown within the application packet:
